

MARKETING FOR SUNDAY: MORE ABOUT THE "HELP" PROBLEM: IN SHOPS: CYNTHIA'S LETTERS

MRS. WILSON'S MENUS FOR SUNDAY MEALS

The Contents of This Week's Market Basket for Breakfast, Dinner and Supper Will Cost About Three Dollars—Number of Persons to Be Served Six

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

IN PURCHASING fruit and vegetables a little experience will enable the housewife to judge the quality by the appearance of the article.

Off-crop vegetables and fruits are frequently offered at a price that will attract the close buyer.

The economical housewife will always attend to the buying herself. And she will give close inspection to her purchases.

Wash well all fruits and vegetables before using them, for sanitary reasons. Planning a menu for Sunday will require but little effort during the warm weather.

Sunday Breakfast

- Berries, Watercress, Omelet in Tomato Cases, French-fried Potatoes, Rolls, Coffee

Dinner

- Vegetable Cocktail, Scallops, Radishes, Peas Pudding, Mushroom Sauce, Fried Noodles, Asparagus, Coleuslaw

Supper

- Corn Fritters, Home-made Chili Sauce, Sliced Tomatoes, Strawberry Shortcake, Tea

The market basket will require

- Two quarts of berries, One bunch of watercress, Fifteen eggs, Four large potatoes, One bunch of scallions, One bunch of radishes, One-half pound of dried peas, One-quarter pound of mushrooms, Small bunch of asparagus, Three pints of milk, One-half pint of cream, One can of corn, Eight tomatoes, Head of cabbage.

This menu could be purchased, including the staples, for an approximate cost of $3.

Omelet in Tomato Cases

Select firm tomatoes and then cut a slice from the top, and with a spoon carefully remove the centers.

- Four tablespoons of water, One teaspoon of salt, One-half teaspoon of pepper.

Beat to mix and then fill into the prepared tomato. Sprinkle one teaspoon of fine bread crumbs on top of each tomato and add

- One teaspoon of butter, Dash of paprika.

Set the custard cups in a baking pan and place in a hot oven, and bake for twenty minutes. Turn on a slice of toast and cover with cream sauce.

Vegetable Cocktail

Cut the center parts of the tomatoes left over from the tomatoes used for breakfast and then add

- One carrot, cut in dice and parboiled, One onion, chopped fine, Four tablespoons of mayonnaise dressing, One teaspoon of salt, One-half teaspoon of paprika.

Mix well and then serve ice cold in cocktail glasses.

Peas Pudding

Soak one-half pound of dried peas overnight and then in the morning boil until tender. Drain and then rub through a fine sieve. Measure and place two cups in a mixing bowl and add

- One cup of prepared stale bread, One cup of prepared thick cream sauce, Three-well beaten eggs, One tablespoon of salt, One and one-half teaspoons of baking powder.

One-half teaspoon of thyme, One tablespoon of Worcester'shire sauce.

Four tablespoons of finely minced parsley.

Thoroughly mix and then pour into well-greased custard cups. Set the cups in a baking pan containing hot water and bake for forty-five minutes. Remove from the oven and run a knife around the edge of each cup to loosen. Let stand for four minutes to shrink and then unmold upon a hot platter. Place a very thin round of toast under each pudding. Cover with mushroom sauce.

Mushroom Sauce

Place one and one-half cups of milk in a saucepan and add four tablespoons of flour. Stir until dissolved and then bring to a boil. Cook for five minutes and then add

- One cup of diced and parboiled mushrooms, One well-beaten egg, One teaspoon of salt, One teaspoon of paprika, Three tablespoons of finely chopped parsley.

Beat to mix and then cook for two minutes and use.

Fried Noodles

Break into a mixing bowl one egg, and then add

- Three tablespoons of water, One-half teaspoon of salt, Pinch of pepper.

Beat to mix and then add sufficient flour to make a stiff dough. Knead for five minutes and then cover and let stand for ten minutes. Now roll out on a floured pastry board until thin as paper. Roll as for jelly and then cut into thin strips with a sharp knife. Spread out to dry for one-half hour and then cook for fifteen minutes in boiling water. Drain. Now place five tablespoons of shortening in a frying pan and add

- Three onions, cut fine, One green pepper, chopped fine.

Cook slowly but gently until soft and then add the noodles. Toss and brown slightly and cook for about ten minutes.

Frozen Strawberry Custard

A small two-quart freezer will make sufficient for the ordinary family at a very small outlay. It will require about ten pounds of ice and one and one-quarter pounds of salt. Break the ice very fine and use a bowl to measure with. Allow three parts of ice to one part of salt for the freezing mixture and four parts of ice to one part salt for the packing mixture.

Make a custard by placing three cups of milk in a saucepan and adding one-half cup of cornstarch. Dissolve the starch in the cold milk and then bring to a boil. Cook for five minutes and then remove and add

- Two well-beaten eggs, One and one-quarter cups of sugar, One teaspoon of vanilla.

Beat to thoroughly mix and then add one pint of crushed strawberries. Freeze and then pack, and allow to ripen for two hours. Do not fill the can that contains the cream mixture more than three-quarters full. This permits the cream to expand.

The Sunday dinner and supper are planned so as to include a guest or two, so the housewife will find this menu will provide ample food for six persons.

Adventures With a Purse

DID you ever make raspberry vinegar? I know of nothing more delightful on a warm day than a tinkling, cooling glass of raspberry vinegar. Or perhaps you would prefer loganberry juice? For the friend who drops in unexpectedly or yourself when you are tired and over-heated, an iced drink of this sort is refreshing. The raspberry vinegar comes in forty-five cent bottles, while the loganberry juice comes in bottles costing as little as fifteen cents and so on up to eighty-five cents.

You cannot judge a book, I will grant you, by its cover any more than you can judge the quality of a face powder by its box. But a powder that combines excellence and purity of quality with an attractive box is greatly to be desired. The particular powder I have in mind is delightfully fragrant, and clings most satisfactorily. And the box—round, large, rather flat, and artistically decorated—is the sort you would like on your dresser or bureau. The price is $1.

Cigar Box Door Stop

Cigar boxes have long been used as treasure chests for old letters, precious keepsakes, important papers and all kinds of things. And there is many a child who has spent a delightful rainy afternoon in the nursery making cigar-box furniture for the dollhouse. But now there is another way in which it can be used. It can be decorated with a hand-painted flower, stenciled with a home-made design, or covered with a pretty crepe, then weighted with sand, tightly closed, to make a pretty door stop for the any room that needs one.

ADD OLD TRIMMING TO THE NEW FROCK

The embroidery bands of yesterday can come in handy this season. Here is a dainty net gown that displays just this trimming.

A Daily Fashion Talk by Florence Rose

THIS summer the woman has the opportunity to be her own true self, and can be just as beautiful and as feminine as she chooses. For all true feminine things are the fashion. Take the materials themselves; they prove that, and the trimmings even add to the ensemble, so there is nothing left to the imagination. In other years when women wore the sports hats with the floppy brims, because the times were unusual the faux was overlooked. This year no woman can possibly make the excuse that she has "nothing to wear," as the fashions are not only feminine, but there is great latitude given, which enables the woman to make over the things in the treasure chest.

I have spoken many times about the treasure chest and it bears repeating because of its usefulness. Many of the smartest things are made by utilizing things that have seen service in other years. Many of the smartest-appearing women consider this their greatest asset—their ability to use the old things in the construction of the new.

This all came to me when I viewed the model shown today, because of the embroidered bands which trim the bodice and the skirt. We have all seen other days when we used just such bands to decorate our frocks, and if we had only kept them, we would have been ready for this season. This dress is made of white net and the bands are also of white net, embroidered, but the same design might be most successfully carried out in either white organdie or net with bands of embroidery on fine muslin. This model has the rounded neckline and the short sleeves required of the newest of the summer models, as well as the wide sash of ribbon. The overskirt is bloused over the foundation, which is decorated with ruffles of the net. The sash and its decoration is added below the waistline.

(Copyright, 1919, by Florence Rose.)

Of Interest to Women

In six states women are now eligible to sit on juries.

The Chamber of Commerce of Niles, O., has voted to admit women to active membership.

One thousand women reserves marched in the annual police parade in New York city the other day.

The British Institution of Naval Architects has unanimously decided to admit women as active members.

The number of business and professional women in the United States is estimated at 11,000,000.

The Question Corner

Today's Inquiries

- 1. Who is Sarah F. Frost? 2. What is a convenient way to keep spoils of colored silk in order to prevent the ends from tangling? 3. Describe a dainty summer knitting bag.

- 4. What material is now being used for motorizing coats? 5. How can the window shades in the summer hangings be turned into attractive decorations? 6. What style of hairdressing for evening, once popular, is coming into favor again?

Yesterday's Answers

- 1. The election reform bill recently adopted in Belgium grants the right to vote to widows who have not remarried, to the mothers of soldiers killed in battle and to the mothers of civilians shot by the Germans.

- 2. Two pictures framed back to back with two pieces of glass with papepartout made a very pleasant diversion for the sick room, as they can be turned from time to time.

- 3. A velvet bon on a hat can be steamed with a hot curling iron covered with damp cloths.

- 4. If silk stockings are washed in cold water before they are worn they will not pull down off the heel or sag at the knee.

- 5. When hand towels in the kitchen show signs of wear in the middle, two can be sewed together so that the good end of each is saved and the rags can be thrown away.

- 6. A plain white net dress can be very daintily trimmed with a ribbon of light color with a pleated edge. This encircles the back of the neck and extends to the waistline, under a rolling collar of the net. The ribbon also makes the girdle with a long end.

THE HOUSEKEEPER'S SIDE OF THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY FOR SERVANTS

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Would you have a word or two from a housekeeper who has been fortunate enough to keep servants for fifteen or sixteen years? I am not afraid of the proposal of a wage scale of $15 or $18 a week is going to upset my household. To try to be fair to the mistress and servant both is not as hard as it would seem.

Let the maid take the situation in hand and consider herself getting $8 a week, living in a nice house, good neighborhood, well heated and furnished room, clean linen, use of bathroom, with its many advantages, and the privilege of a cup of tea whenever she may desire it between times, and then let her try to get all this for the balance, say, of her new union wage scale when it provides for her living away. It would be from $7 to $9 a week. Where can she get all this for that?

The eight-hour day is more than the average servant works. If you take and average her time week in and week out it's not much more than six hours. Where the girls would room and board themselves outside would in no way compare with the conveniences of the average household. I think one of the most unreasonable things expected of a servant is to ask her to sit in the kitchen evening after evening after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I disapprove very strongly of having foods served in the dining-room too good and too expensive for the maid. It is not perfectly natural for them to like to eat what they are given after her work is done just because she may be wanted. Why not let them go out to have a little chat with their friends as we ourselves would like to do if lonely? And that is very little to grant, and look what it means to the maid. I dis